Singing A Song to God

Psalm 96 instructs us: "Shiru l'Adonai, kol ha-aretz"—"Let all the earth sing a song to God," and in fact the Psalms are replete with other musical exhortations. I don't think it is an accident that we talk about a rhythm of life, or the music of the spheres, as I believe that the ability to make and appreciate music is part of what makes us human.

As Plato wrote, "Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination and life to everything." Music expresses our feelings and emotions, music unites communities, and music provides a sound track for our days and nights.

How many of us walk around with a song in our heads, often the last thing playing on the radio or CD? I know I have spent a day with the Beatles or Beethoven playing in my head, and sometimes people gently point out that I my internal replay has morphed into singing out loud.

For at least the last 2500 years, music has been an important part of Jewish worship and Jewish culture. Whether Dayeinu, Mi Chamocha, or Bim Bam, we sing our way through rituals and holidays. We chant Torah and Haftorah, The Four Questions, even parts of our funeral liturgy.

Non-religious music too has its Jewish voices—among them Barbra Streisand, Leonard Cohen and the men and women of Tin Pan Alley and Broadway. Whether in Hebrew, English, Ladino, or Yiddish, music has enabled Jewish communities to express their fears and hopes, to celebrate the happy times as well mourn the sad; melodies too provide connections—have you ever said to yourself "Gee, that sounds Jewish?"

Does it? What does “sounds Jewish” mean? To answer these and other queries, this year the LifeLong Living Committee is going to try and answer the question: “What is Jewish Music?”

Starting with the upcoming High Holy Day season, and continuing through June, chair Nicole Leapley and I are planning an ambitious series of interconnected learning opportunities:

- We will begin our year of music on August 31, with our annual High Holy Day Warm Up, at which Cantor Lori and I will focus on High Holy Day melodies.
- A three week course later in the Fall with Cantor Shira will discuss the roots of Jewish music.
- A winter class with me, reading and discussing Psalms.
- There will be special Shabbatot with particular musical styles sprinkled throughout the year,
- Our Religious School students will sing with Sh'lichah Noam Wolf this Spring and the modern Israeli songs they learn will enrich a Religious School Shabbat.
- Last, and certainly not least, we hope to host three concerts: Classical, Contemporary, and Klezmer during the year.

Music will continue to play an important part in our annual Winter choir exchange with Temple Beth Jacob in Concord—as well as the Spring Brotherhood and Sisterhood Service, and of course our annual Purim Spiel.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE Robert Bersak

“Congratulations and condolences!” I’ve lost count of how many times I’ve heard that since being elected President of our Congregation.

In years past, perhaps those words were apt. But not today! I can wholeheartedly attest that being one of the leaders of Temple Adath Yeshurun is fun, rewarding and joyful—no need for condolences!

Instead, I say “Thank You!” for the honor and privilege.

TAY’s history dates back to at least 1889. (If you haven’t done so, take some time to read our history on the TAYNH.org website.) We are here today, a mere half a mile from the first recorded site of a synagogue in Manchester, B’nai Jeshurun at 1058 Elm Street. )

For nearly 130 years, TAY has provided a

Please watch your bulletins and email updates for more details as they become available.

I am excited that the entire TAY family will have the chance to learn and sing together.

As we head into this High Holy Day season, I wish each of you a New Year full of health and happiness, prosperity and peace.

As we approach our Divine Partner in this time of reflection and repentance, I hope you will join me in “singing of faithfulness and justice, chanting a hymn to You, our Eternal God” (Psalm 101).

Community for prayer, joy, sorrow, learning, laughter, and (of course) food.

All these ingredients are possible not because someone is the Congregation’s President. They happen because we have a core team of leaders: members who want these elements of Manchester to continue to be available to us now and in the future.

The more people who join in, the better our community will be. You do not need to be an officer or Board member to become a leader of our community. Every involvement will help. We have many committees charged with specific tasks to guide the Board. We have social and educational programs. We have our Sisterhood, Brotherhood, and Youth Group (MANTY). We have social actions efforts and our fundraisers. And, we have services—even when it is not the High Holidays!

For TAY to continue to thrive, “It takes a village.” We need feedback, participation, and involvement from all our members. Once you become more active, you too will see that “condolences” are not called-for. You will congratulate yourself for finding the joy that TAY has to offer, as well as receive many “thank yous” from others that will come just from having fun. Just like my “thank you” above!

How do you get to join us in the fun and joy available at TAY? Read this Bulletin and weekly updates to learn what is happening. Give Rabbi Beth or our Office a call. Call me or any of the other officers and Board members. It’s easy!

As we embark on a new year on the Jewish calendar, a new school year for our kids, and a new fiscal year for Temple Adath Yeshurun, let’s all do something new for ourselves! TAY is here; TAY is open; and TAY is fun! Please join in.

Joke for August-September 2018

by Ted Yegerman

Fast Food on Yom Kippur?

It was Yom Kippur and Mama had just returned from the synagogue after the morning service, when her eyes rested on some chicken bones lying on the table. Her son, a husky eighteen-year-old was lounging on the sofa, reading a magazine. He seemed far too contented to have been fasting.

"Morris," she said sternly, pointing to the chicken bones, "you ate on Yom Kippur! How could you do such a thing?"

"Now don't start accusing me, Mama," protested her son, "I haven't eaten a thing, and I can prove it!"

Morris then opened the refrigerator, extracted half a roast chicken, five hamburgers, and half a pumpernickel, all of which he devoured, washing it down with a quart of soda.

"See, Mama? What did I tell you?"
 If I had eaten that chicken on the table, do you think I'd be hungry enough to eat all this again so soon?"

TAY Brotherhood 2018 Spring Dinner Concert...and All That Jazz!

The Temple Adath Yeshurun Brotherhood Spring Dinner Concert (formerly known as the Seniors Dinner) was held at TAY on Thursday evening, May 10, 2018. And "Oh, What a Night" it was.

Over 70 were present--including guests, Brotherhood Kitchen Krew members, and members of the Manchester West High School Jazz Ensemble (our evening's entertainment).

This evening of great food, great camaraderie and great music, was once again chaired by Mark Granoff. A delicious meal was prepared by the Brotherhood Kitchen Krew, including Mark G, Bob Katchen, Michael Bank, David Penchansky, Mel Spierer, Jay Hodes, Sol Rockenmacher and David Rosenzweig (who was also the official photographer of the event).

Alan Kaplan set up the audio equipment. Rabbi Beth delivered the pre-meal blessing. Linda Rockenmacher helped with decorations for the tables. Bob and JoAnne LeFevre helped in the kitchen.

The main course was chicken with stuffing, a bean dish, and sweet potatoes, with challah on the side. For dessert there was a celebratory cake, cookies, and fruit salad.

A highlight of the evening was an encore outstanding performance by the Manchester West High School Jazz Band, and it was great to have them back. They played very well indeed music from the 40's and the 50's. Diane Francoeur is the faculty leader and advisor for this wonderful group of young people.

At right, one of two soloists takes the mike to wow the audience with her voice.

From all the feedback we have had, this was another exceptional Spring Dinner Concert happening. Don't miss it next year. Such jazzy live music is a rarity these days.

About Udi Goren

Udi Goren has given our Bulletin permission to use his photograph on the front page of this issue, as he did last year. In an email to the Editor on August 8, 2018, he commented on his connection to our temple, "I do hold a special place for TAY and would allow [you to use my photo on page 1.]"

Udi Goren, an Israeli photographer and educator, was brought to New Hampshire by the Jewish Federation of NH in May 2017. He gave three presentations with photos and discussion at Temple Adath Yeshurun and also climbed Mount Monadnock with a small group of hikers from the Jewish Federation and Temple Adath Yeshurun.

Earlier in 2018, he published the first-ever photo book about the journey on the Israel National Trail, which was sold in every book store in Israel.

He will return to the U.S. for speaking tours in November 2018 and February 2019.

This November he is scheduled for Boston, NY, and Philadelphia. If all goes as planned he will be appearing at Temple Emanu-El in Haverhill, MA—not far from the NH state line—on Nov. 4, 2018, at 10 AM.

In February 2019 his schedule includes California and the Mid-West. For more info, check out this site: <Israeltrailtalk.com>

ATTENTION ALL WRITERS

(experienced or developing)...

We're looking for articles from the congregation. Every issue you will find regular columns from our Rabbi, Congregational President, Education Director, and Brotherhood and Sisterhood Co-Presidents.

Last summer, the Rabbi suggested a "Jews from the Pews" column—that is, a guest spot for each issue. We no longer have pews, so we're not so sure of the title, but that shouldn't stop you from coming forward with a great idea for an article.

And while we work on the title ("Mensch from the Benches?") you can work on a piece of news, an opinion piece, a reminiscence, an interview with your favorite TAY personality.

You propose it, we'll consider it.

We'll also provide you with expert editorial skills and feedback, as well our 5779 copy DEADLINES and Guidelines. (Fortune favors the bold, though not the bold-face type. Please use non-bold Times New Roman, 10-point font, single-spaced paragraphs.)

Questions or ideas?

Send them to news@taynh.org, and we'll send you answers. Or call M. Singer at 497-2379 between 8 AM and 8 PM. Let's talk.

We'll take care of the rest.

Peace & Pomegranates

Stacy Garnick

For the last few summers, my family and friends have been asking me: “Stacy, how do you like your new Temple job?”

Eventually my position at TAY won't be so new, but my answer is always that "I really enjoy it, but in the summer it's a totally different bunch of bananas; it'll be so different when school starts, and the kids and families come.”

Although during the summer I am busy doing sundry things—talking with teachers, meeting with our esteemed school committee, and with Rabbi Beth, excavating closets and old file cabinets, reading new text book possibilities, buying some of those books, covering bulletin boards, picking up supplies, talking with parents—I have yet to do one of the most important things: see the kids.

Temple Adath Yeshurun and its members have met me only with warmth and enthusiasm; however, when I'm in the building, I spend most of my time there alone. This edifice does not truly feel like a school until the kids and families enter our doors.

When God made the world
God made it full of light
The sun to shine by day
The moon and stars by night
God made it full of life:
Lilies, oak and trout,
Tigers and bears,
Sparrows, hawks, and apes.
Then God took clay from earth's four corners
And gave it the breath of life
And God said:
“This is very good
This is very, very good—
Man, woman, and child
All are good”

(NFTY Youth Group Song)

I am eagerly anticipating Yom Rishon (First Day). Yom Rishon also means “Sunday,” and while not all first days are Sundays, the phrase is linked to the story of Creation. [See the lyrics in the box at the top of this column.]

September is finally around the corner; Yom Rishon (First Day) is upon us. Our first day is Tuesday, September 4, and Faculty Orientation follows school that day.

I bet there was a lot of bustling and a bit of confusion on the original Yom Rishon!

Most “first days” include some of this. I wouldn’t trade it for the world, because on each of our first days, your children will breathe life into the school.
“This is very, very good.”

Religious Response to Hunger Food Drive: Your Yom Kippur Fast Can Aid the Hungry

by Bobbie Brayer

For thousands of people without the security of knowing where their next meal will come from, Families in Transition-New Horizon relies on community donations to help put food on the table for over 900 families each month.

At a time when the need is high and the pantry shelves are running low, your response becomes that more important.

According to Mary Silva, Food Services Manager at Families in Transition-New Horizons, "last year's effort brought in 554 bags which was approximately 2,770 pounds of food for the pantry – a record number of bags since 2011!"

The Religious Response to Hunger, which begins on Rosh Hashannah, calls on members of Temple Adath Yeshurun, Temple Israel and the Chabad to fill grocery bags which will be distributed after services by members of MANTY, the Manchester Temple youth group.

You are asked to take the bags home, fill them with the equivalent of non-perishable food you and your family would have eaten during the High Holy Days, add a little extra if you can, and then return the bags on Yom Kippur.

Judith Jolton, chair of this effort for many years, expressed her satisfaction that over 25 thousand pounds of donated food has been collected for Families in Transition-New Horizon.

"Our Religious Response to Hunger calls on all of us to give more for the growing number of people who need more. There could be no better way to start the New Year than the Mitzvah of Giving" Jolton said.

Please select from the list of foods we have included.

We have all experienced what it is like to be hungry... the physiological sensation caused by lack of food.

But for 49 million Americans, including 1 in 5 children, "hunger" has been redefined as a more telling epidemic: "food insecurity," the inability to access food consistently, whether it be not able to afford it or not having access to it.

New Horizons:

- Serves over 250 meals each day in our soup kitchen;
- Shelters an average of 80 people each night;
- Provides groceries to 900 families each month in our food pantry.

The problem goes far beyond the homeless population and has embedded itself in communities like ours, here in Manchester where parents have to choose between paying their utility bills or buying food; or for seniors on fixed incomes purchasing food or resources to access or prepare meals.

These are the people who find help at the Families in Transition-New Horizon Food Pantry and Soup Kitchen. For over 30 years, Temple Adath Yeshurun, Temple Israel and now the Chabad have made it a High Holy Day tradition to reach out to help those in need with its Religious Response to Hunger.

Last month, we provided bags in our Social Outreach program to support the community.

This month, we hope you will fill them. Thank you for your continued support and contributions of food and non-food items so desperately needed by our neighbors in Manchester.

Sorry to BADGE-R You... You NEED your badges!

We want to remind everyone (again)—and yes, we mean EVERYONE—that they should use their name tags this year.

We are in an unfortunate time when there is a need for heightened security and, as such, your name and identity at services are of the utmost importance for insuring your safety and all of us in the congregation.

Members in good standing (that's important) will receive High Holy Day tickets in the mail. YOUR NAME TAGS ARE YOUR TICKETS.

When you first check in at the door, you may take a plastic name tag holder for use during the High Holidays.

Please keep your name tag in the holder and bring it to all High Holy Day Services.

After the holidays, we ask that you please return the name tag holders, so that we may reuse, recycle, and save a little money.

Remember,
Wear your name tag to
ALL SERVICES.
Help us keep our congregation safe!

THANK YOU.

Memorial Plaques at Temple Adath Yeshurun

Remembrance is central part of Jewish culture and heritage. Our holidays signify remembrance of events or identify times of year. So, too, we remember our loved ones at the times of their passing.

In fact, the word “Yahrtzeit” is a conjunction of the Yiddish words for “year” and “time”. The Yahrtzeit of an individual has taken on significance in Yizkor (Remembrance) Services, held at TAY on Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot. We remember our loved ones by reading their names on the Shabbat closest to each yahrtzeit. We hold a communal Service of Remembrance at the cemetery on the Sunday between Rosh HaShannah and Yom Kippur (Sunday, Sept. 16, 2018, 10 AM). On Memorial Day we hold a special Service of Remembrance in our cemetery, for those who served in our military.

Our temple provides another means to remember our loved ones: a Memorial plaque on the wall in the lobby containing the name and date of passing. The tradition of a Yahrtzeit wall dates back centuries.

Our Yahrtzeit wall is modest by comparison with some synagogues, but no less important. The plaques are changed corresponding to the month by our administrator, Karen Rothstein. Should you wish to include the name of your loved one in this Temple Adath Yeshurun tradition, please contact Karen in the office. The cost of a plaque is a one-time fee of $360.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Linda Rockenmacher

Sisterhood is planning for a busy year ahead and we hope our members will enjoy the activities we will provide. Our first effort is always decorating the bima for the high holidays. We purchase fruits, vegetables and flowers with donations from the congregation; then following each holiday we take all the edibles to New Horizons. If anyone would like to assist with the decorating, please contact me.

In the fall you will receive a form to order See's Candy for our annual fundraiser. Money raised will be used to enhance our temple, so we appreciate your support, and you'll find everyone likes these quality chocolates and candies.

Our annual TAY Sisterhood Membership dinner is scheduled for Monday, October 22, so mark your calendars. We promise you a memorable evening with a Moroccan theme this year.

Roslyn Block is again supervising the menu selections. You won't want to miss the presentation of our 2018 Woman of the Year Award that evening.

JoAnn Meyers is again chairing the onegs this year with Ruth Kleinfeld. If you want to honor a loved one by sponsoring an oneg please contact either one of them.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, September 4, at 7 PM at the temple. Interested women are welcome to join us to share your ideas and participate in planning for the year.

L'Shanah Tovah.

Why Should I Sponsor a Shabbat Oneg?

Realtors have a saying:

There are three important "must-haves" that a home buyer wants when considering a purchase:

LOCATION
LOCATION

What does this have to do with a reason to sponsor an Oneg, you ask?

You should consider three reasons:

BECAUSE YOU CARE—about CELEBRATING a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, an important Birthday/Anniversary of a loved one or friend, or a Graduation.

BECAUSE YOU CARE—about HONORING a family event, Mitzvah, a friend's achievement, a special recognition of a loved one or friend.

BECAUSE YOU CARE—about REMEMBERING a personal or family Yahrtzeit, a friend's loss of a loved one, a Congregational loss or a Member's loss of a relative.

I'm sure you can think of many other reasons as well. Also, please keep in mind that donations to the Sisterhood Oneg fund are always welcome and will be acknowledged in the weekly Shabbat Flyer.

Todah rabbah to all who have sponsored onegs this past year, and all those who never say "no" when called. Please consider doing so this coming Fall when Onegs once again commence in September.

A big todah rabbah to Ruth Kleinfeld and Brenda Schadick who have stepped up to serve with me on the Oneg Committee.

Please do not contact the office to reserve a date as our Office Manager's multiple duties do not include monitoring the Oneg Calendar.

Feel free to email me at any time. If you prefer to call, evenings are best. I am looking forward to hearing from you!

Happy New Year to us all and may your fast be easy.

Prayer for the Days of Awe

In this moment of silent communion, a still, small voice beckons me:
to pursue my life's work with full attention
though no eye is upon me;
to be gentle in the face of ingratitude,
even when slander distorts my nobler impulses;
to meet the end of the day with the certainty that I've used my gifts well and with dignity.
O let me become ever braver, facing life's trials with distinction.
May I live on in deeds that bless others,
and offer the heritage of a good name.

A Prayer for Our Country

[Editor's Note: Reprinted from the service folder for Shabbat Service on Friday, July 28, 2017. Adapted by Rabbi Beth D. Davidson.]

God of blessing, we hear Your call:
You shall be holy, for I am holy.
[Lev. 19:2]
God of righteousness, we hear Your challenge:
Justice, Justice shall you pursue.
[Dt. 16:20]
God of freedom, we hear Your charge:
Proclaim liberty throughout the land.
[Lev. 25:10]

Let each of us be a defender of dignity,
an advocate for justice,
an activist for liberty.
And so let us champion
the values that make our nation
a haven for the persecuted,
a beacon of hope among the nations.
We pray for courage and conscience, as we strive to support our country's highest values and aspirations: the hard-won rights that define us as a people, the responsibilities that they entail.

*We pray for all who serve our country with selfless devotion—in peace and in war—from the fields of battle to clinics and classrooms, from government to the grassroots,
all those whose noble deeds and sacrifice benefit our nation and our world. And we pray for those who lead our country, that they may hear Your commands and work to support dignity, justice and liberty for all.*

Inspire us through Your teachings and commandments to love and uphold our precious democracy. Let every citizen take responsibility for the rights and freedoms we cherish—Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness—and we pray for wisdom and moral strength, that we may be guardians of these rights for ourselves and others, now and forever.
AMEN
